Caring for Our Babies through Traditional Teachings and Practices:

[illegible]

March 29, 2010, 8:30 am - 3:30 pm @ 345 Wale Road, Victoria, B.C.

This one day forum will illustrate traditional methods of practice with Indigenous babies and children. It will include multiple voices, storytelling, puppet shows and other activities to share different ways of working with young children. This will be a place of dialogue around supporting families with their new born babies while upholding Indigenous ways of knowing and being.

[illegible]

Fran Baker (Elder), Susan Williams (MCS Team Leader), Rebecca Mabee (MCS Cultural & Community Liaison), Dr. Jeannine Carrière (UVic School of Social Work & ICWR Researcher and Executive Member), Dr. Cathy Richardson (UVic School of Social Work & ICWR Executive), Jacquie Green (ICWR Project Manager & UVic School of Social Work)

[illegible]

REACH
Research in Early Childhood Care, Education and Health

Métis Community Services

University of Victoria
Human & Social Development

British Columbia
Ministry of Children and Family Development